

TECHNOLOGY FACILITATED STALKING

Technology can be a major tool used to further intimate partner violence. Its vast uses can be one of the most challenging behaviors to document and curb.

Understanding the motivations and the tools available is one step we can take at ending this abuse. PA probation/parole professionals are invited to join us to learn

- the power and control dynamics prevalent in cyber crime
- what technology is used by perpetrators
- the lethality factors and assessment tools available
